STORY – THE SHIELD

Tayo was walking to school with his brother. He was happy that the rain had stopped. He had an umbrella, but the umbrella wouldn't have done much to protect him from the heavy rain. He was about to cross the road when he heard someone calling his name. He didn't want to go back, but his friend was motioning seriously. He had not taken up to three steps when a car sped by him and splashed muddy water all over the place where he had his brother would have been.

Ibukun was walking beside her mother. As she looked at the puddles beside the road, her mother remembered that Ibukun was supposed to be on the other side of her. A second after Ibukun was pulled to the side, a motorcycle rider who had lost control skidded off the road and landed just beside Ibukun's mother.

Blessing was in the car with her family. They were running late so her father was driving quickly, trying to stay within the speed limit. All of a sudden a ball rolled onto the road and a child ran after it. Blessing's father swerved so that he wouldn't hit the child. In the process, the car bounced off a sand pile and somersaulted. Blessing's father shouted 'Jesus!' as the car continued its trajectory and landed right side up. No one was hurt and miraculously very little damage to the car.

All the three children testified that God had protected them. God protects us when we are on the playground (running, playing on the playground equipment, etc.), in the kitchen (cutting vegetables, frying chicken, etc.) in the bathroom (so we don't slip on the floor, etc.), using electrical things (so that the electricity doesn't shock us, etc.) and in so many other places. God is good.
